Learning His Place: Locked In Chastity And Taught To Submit

Synopsis

Joe is the kind of guy that everyone envies: handsome, athletic, successful. The kind of guy that can have any girl “ and the occasional guy “ he desires. At least, that is, until a series of personal and professional missteps drives him to the bar to drink away his troubles and a chance encounter with a handsome stranger leads to the cocky, self-confident top finding himself locked in chastity and forced to submit to the whims of his captor, serving and servicing him and his friends sexually and domestically. Can Joe escape his captor’s clutches? Hell, does he even want to? Thrill along with Joe over the course of this blisteringly hot 21,000+ word erotic novella as he learns that sex is about more than just what hangs between his legs and experiences a weekend of sexual servitude, public humiliation, and intense domination at the hands of multiple men, leading to earth-shattering new heights of erotic excitement and self-discovery. M. Stonehouse’s stunning, stylistic prose and captivating erotic imagery make LEARNING HIS PLACE impossible to put down. Fans of Stonehouse’s previous books, PLEASING PATRICK and BOBBY’S BIG BLAST will find plenty to love in the protagonist’s sudden and dramatic role reversal, and new readers are sure to delight in the sizzling, explosive scenes of man-on-man action. Whether you dream of submission or long to lock a hot jock like Joe, LEARNING HIS PLACE is sure to please! LEARNING HIS PLACE features intense depictions of graphic, gay male sex and explores themes of bondage, domination, submission, humiliation, spanking, chastity, public and group sex, reluctant sexual servitude, degradation and objectification. If you find such pursuits distasteful, please look elsewhere. If not...read on!

Customer Reviews

This review was originally published on the GGR-Review blog online. Learning His Place by M. Stonehouse will teach me to read the blurb in its completion and not just skim the first few sentences. I seldom to never start a review with what I disliked the most about a book but I will this time simply because it works and proves my point. Those who know me knows I like BDSM books, the lifestyle and the people in it fascinates me. People in general fascinates me and people who live life for them no matter what it is (as long as it doesnâ™t hurt anyone else) are according to me brave people. Iâ™ll admit I saw M. Stonehouse name and the genre and thought â^Hmm, new author to me must readâ™. Wellâ | where the hell to begin. When I started to read this book I started out as always expecting everything and nothing, let me tell you that I became more than a little shocked when Joe one of the MC of this book wakes up with his shag from the night before has locked him up in a cock cage and the key is nowhere to be seen. This charming and little cut guy from the knight is this hard core top with skills not even Joe can resist. He wants to at least mentally but not really. He is weirdly drawn to the topky stranger who demands his presence in his home for the entire weekend to be his slave more or less simply to teach him a lesson. Without any choice and despite all the humiliation he is put through he stays and quite frankly he likes what happens to him. I can honestly say, humiliation publicly or not isnâ™t my kink not in any way shape or form, normally I should add. There is nothing sexy about forced or bullying or humiliating. So how is it that M. Stonehouse still got a four star rating? Because either M.
