Customer Reviews

Where to start on why I didn't like this book? The plot had potential but completely squandered in execution. There were too many issues with plot development, i.e., how old was this girl? Supposedly she was a college freshman but she moves halfway across the country at 18 and moves into an apartment with only 3 boxes and some clothes. She's in school on scholarship, which is fine but scholarships don't pay the rent. Only 3 boxes...and it takes her weeks to unpack? How big were the boxes? I had way more than 3 boxes to move into my shared dorm room! Drinking age, even for beer in the US is 21, how is she going into a bar and getting served without question? Not to mention keeping beer in her fridge? The editing issues were awful as well. Notice I haven't even talked about the steamy parts? Exactly. I don't like writing bad reviews but now that this book is no longer free, I didn't feel like I could, in good conscience, let someone waste their money.

It's not a book with love. In fact the sex was so degrading there was no finesse in their doing. The writing was stunted and lacking, not engaging the reader. Some of sentence structure and spelling needed to be worked on. The story was just dead and had no passion.

I think the story could have been filled out a lot more and maybe add a plot other than just the sex. I mean I know that's what I got it for but seriously a good story helps it make more sense. I can get better from Penthouse Forums.
