I read the 3 Musketeers and 20 Years Later. I enjoyed the books and the publisher did a good job linking the table of contents. My concern right now is on The Vicomte De Bragelonne. In this set of books The Vicomte De Bragelonne starts off Chapter 1 with this chapter: Showing What Neither The Naiad Nor Dryad had Anticipated. Everything I find says that this is a later chapter in The Vicomte De Bragelonne or it is in 10 Years Later. Clearly it is missing either a whole book or a large set of chapters. Are others reading these books and finding this error? After some research I've identified that the publisher basically left out Chapter 1: The Letter through Chapter 133: Royal Psychology from the full book of The Vicomte De Bragelonne. So this is What the publisher has done:- The Vicomte de Bragelonne - this version has Chapter 1 as "Showing What Neither the Naiad or Dryad Had Anticipated" (This chapter would be the 134th chapter in the full printing of The Vicomte de Bragelonne, the 59th chapter of certain printings of Ten Years Later, or the 41st chapter of certain printings of Louise de la Vallière). I have found no other version of this book that starts with the aforementioned chapter. This version of The Vicomte de Bragelonne then is a the rest of the whole book of the The Vicomte de Bragelonne. It is not divided up into Ten Years After, Louise de la Valliere, and The Man and The Iron Mask but it is missing the chapters mentioned above. So basically it appears to be a full version missing 133 chapters (or half the book). The next three books appear to be the proper division containing all chapters: - 10 Years Later seems to be the same version as this: [...
